

I do not need banks, credit card companies, phone company, or anyone for that matter, calling me at home wasting my valuable time with any solicitation. The only purpose of phone solicitation is to find a way to separate me from some of my money and this is not in my interest.

-Ben Keller